Week of Events at Highline College to Celebrate Diversity

DES MOINES, Wash. — The public is invited to celebrate and explore diversity and contemporary social justice issues at Highline College, April 23–27, 2018. Now in its 21st year, Unity Through Diversity Week will include free events by a wide range of guest speakers and campus experts.

United by the theme “Breaking Patterns: Our Time Is Now,” the weeklong program looks at the diversity of the South King County community in many forms: race, gender, class, sexual orientation, ability and religion.

Event Schedule

All events will be held on the college’s main campus in Des Moines, located midway between Seattle and Tacoma at South 240th Street and Pacific Highway South (Highway 99). Find full event descriptions on the Unity Through Diversity Week page.
